1. Rule 61.105 Solo Flight Requirements

1.1 Medical Certificate

1.1.1 A person may fly solo as a student pilot if the various requirements prescribed in rule 61.105 are met.

1.1.2 Rule 61.105(a)(2) requires a person to hold:

- (a) at least a current Class 2 medical certificate issued by the Director under the Act; or
- (b) a medical certificate issued in accordance with rule 44(1) of the Land Transport (Driver Licensing) Rule 1999, that is applicable for a Class 2, 3, 4 or 5 driver licence with passenger endorsement: a DL9 form.

1.1.3 Pilots holding a New Zealand Transport Authority DL9 form should retain the original of their current form and carry at least a copy of that document when flying.

1.1.4 A person who intends to become a professional pilot should also be aware that if they are unable to meet the medical standards for the issue of a Class 1 medical certificate they will be unable to meet the eligibility requirement for the issue of a commercial pilot licence or an airline transport pilot licence.

1.1.5 A person who holds a lifetime pilot licence issued in accordance with Part 61 but who does not meet the currency requirements applicable to their licence may undertake dual flight instruction. If the person holds a current medical certificate, they may fly solo provided the requirements of rule 61.105 are met.

1.2 Pre-Solo English Language Communication Requirements

1.2.1 Rule 61.105(a)(4) requires a person to have sufficient ability in reading, speaking, understanding and communicating in the English language to enable them to adequately carry out the responsibilities of a pilot-in-command of an aircraft before a flight instructor can authorise the person to fly solo as a student pilot.

1.2.2 In order to meet this English language communication requirement, the student needs to provide suitable evidence that one of the following English language assessment requirements has been met:

- (a) the student has completed at least 2 years secondary education in an Australian or New Zealand educational institution, or the equivalent of a New Zealand secondary education in a country where the instructional language was English; or
- (b) the student has been employed in Australia, New Zealand, USA, Canada, or UK for at least 3 years; or
- (c) the student has demonstrated proficiency to at least Level 4 (Operational) of the ICAO Language Proficiency Rating Scale (refer to AC AC61-1, Appendix I); or
- (d) the student has attained at least the minimum score in any of the English language proficiency tests in accordance with the following Table of English Language Proficiency Tests:

Table 1: English Language Proficiency Tests

Test	Minimum score
International English Language Testing System (IELTS) general training module (GTM) http://www.ielts.org/	Overall grade of 5.5 and no paper lower than 5
Test of English for International Communication (TOEIC) TOEIC Australia and New Zealand	650

Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) paper-based	530

Note: The TOEIC Australia and New Zealand web site provides information and guidance on the TOEIC, including details on the test, public test centres and centres offering preparatory courses.

ICAO English Language Assessment requires a demonstration of the ability to communicate in an AVIATION context. Therefore, students who choose to undertake this assessment are expected to have a basic aviation awareness of the subject matter in the PPL syllabus published in AC61-3, Appendix II.

1.2.3 When the holder of a Category A or B flight instructor rating is satisfied that the student pilot has met one of the English language assessment requirements specified above, the flight instructor should endorse the student pilot's logbook in the following format.

&lt;Student pilot's name&gt; has been assessed proficient in communicating in English through:
1. English educated
2. English based employment
3. English language proficiency test (Detail type of test and pass mark)
(Delete those not applicable)
&lt;Instructor's name&gt;	&lt;Category A or B&gt;	&lt;Client number&gt;	&lt;Date&gt;

1.3 Solo Cross Country

1.3.1 Rule 61.105(a)(9)(ii) requires a student pilot to hold a valid written examination credit for a private pilot licence in accordance with rule 61.153(a)(6) before undertaking a solo cross-country flight. It is recommended that a student pilot should study for their private pilot licence written examinations early in their flight training to ensure that when they are ready for their solo cross country, they have attained the required PPL written examination credit.

1.4 Monitoring of Solo Flights by Flight Instructor

1.4.1 Rule 61.105(b) requires the flight instructor who authorises the solo flight under rule 61.105(a)(5) to monitor the actions of the pilot during the flight. The general purpose of monitoring the solo flight is to ensure that the flight instructor has an adequate overview of the actions of the student pilot during that flight. Circumstances may differ depending on whether the flight is cross country or not. Therefore, the degree to which the flight instructor can practically monitor the flight may vary.

1.4.2 The actions that are considered acceptable include the following—

- (1) the flight instructor is present at the aerodrome and conducts a pre-flight briefing
- (2) the flight instructor provides guidance on the areas through which the flight is to be conducted
- (3) the flight instructor is present at the time of the flight as applicable (i.e. whether on the ground or in another aircraft, and whether in the same airspace or not)
- (4) a flight instructor will monitor the radio frequency in use where possible.
